Committee Reports:

Roger Moffatt reported on the Centennial Family Project. About 27,500 names had been entered. He clarified some of the problem areas, and thanked those involved with the project.

Sue Irvine asked that societies mail a copy of their newsletter directly to Tammy Parsons. That way, information to be included in the MGC Newsletter would be more timely. Also, information regarding activities of your societies that should be listed on the MGC web-site need to be sent to Connie Olsen. Any changes you would like to see on the web-site, send a note to Tom Koselka.

Connie Olsen reminded attendees of the Leadership Workshop to be held on 15 May at the 1st Presbyterian Church in Lansing. There is no fee for the workshop. Bring your lunch. This is a good opportunity to share ideas with others. Delegates are reminded to ensure their societies are aware of the workshop and that it is for any member, not just society officers.

Public Forum: -}

Sue Irvine reminded attendees of the FGS Conference in Knoxville TN in August. Always a great learning experience.

Florence Wilson of Monroe Co indicated they are having a seminar on March 27th. Flyers are available.

Judy Sheldon of Huron Shores indicated their May program will have Edwina Morgan as a speaker on English Research. Handouts are available.

Jim Jackson reminded attendees that the Lucy Mary Kellogg Award selection committee will be meeting in June to review nominating packets. He also indicated there was a possibility that some of the future programs regarding family research and the program "Who Do You Think You Are" may be open for additional financial supporters.

Beverly Keicher of Midland GS indicated several of their members have worked together and published a CD which includes 13 books of Midland County records and history. Flyers available on table.

Don Bryant of Western Mich GS noted they are having a seminar in Grand Rapids on 5-6 November, with Megan Smolenyak-Smolenyak as speaker. This will be her 1st speaking engagement in Michigan. He also indicated they are sponsoring a bus trip to Fort Wayne on 21-22 April to Allen County Library. They will stop in Lansing on the way.
