The Story of Standish and its People, 1876-1976 by Allan McCready, 1976 - Reprinted Content: The purpose of this story is to preserve the names of the men and to mention their part in the building of our fair city of Standish. I grew up with many of those who were responsible for the city's growth, lived and worked with them during more than half the century covered herein. Being curious and keeping a diary have helped me to supply many of the dates. Having worked with some of those who were early settlers has been a big help in supplying names and occupations of many who otherwise may have been forgotten. Allan Mc Cready. 108 pages plus illustrations.	$10.00
First Families of Standish Township, 1974 Reprinted Content: Standish Township, where much of the Indian population lived, was created in 1873 from Arenac Township in Bay County. CEMETERY PUBLICATIONS Our cemetery publications are Soft Cover folders/binders Spiral Bound. While these primarily cover Genesee County cemeteries, several also include cemeteries in the surrounding counties of Lapeer, Livingston, Oakland, Saginaw, Shiawassee and Tuscola. Please Note: The information in Books 01 - 22 of our Cemetery Publications is taken from the personal notes of Merle Gilbert Perry, Jr. (1921-1980). An early member of the FGS who held several key offices over the years, Mr. Perry was particularly interested in gathering and preserving cemetery records. His readings were taken from 1961 to 1965; therefore they DO NOT contain any burials after 1965. Some of these cemeteries have been redone in later publications which contain more current information but do not contain Mr. Perry's personal notes on family information.

23	Old Flint City Cemetery (Burial dates from 1836-1958. This cemetery was physically relocated from 1952 to 1958. Some re-interments were made at other cemeteries as arranged privately by family members. All other re-interments occurred at the new Flint City Cemetery where all records were later lost in an office fire in the 1960's. This one-of-a-kind book is an excellent attempt to recreate that record from death records, obituaries and various other sources. It contains approximately 1,800 burials.) *Note for Fenton: Many first names were abbreviated by the census enumerator, so old county directories & cemetery books were used to determine many of the first names listed in this record.

Note for Flint Ward No. 2: The microfilm copy was very difficult to read. Many alternate record sources were consulted to arrive at a final interpretation.

The Monforte Letters: Correspondence of Historical Interest 1837-1919 Over 300 pages, including index. "Includes randomly selected copies of original letters with photos and pedigree charts." Written more than a century ago, The Monforte Letters is a collection of letters written amongst family and friends from 1837-1919. The letters, originally kept by Harriet Monforte and her eldest daughter, Martha "Mattie" Monforte Andrews, were felt to be important enough to be treasured by succeeding generations. The Monfortes were not wealthy or noted, but surely give us a glimpse into the daily lives of ordinary people of the times.

Some Often Mentioned Surnames: Volckman, Rogers, Monforte, Moore, Hill, Andrews, Bath, Burchard, Cure, Darbee, Dicken, Dunlop, Farnsworth, Fenton, Gee, Grojer, Harlow, Humphrey, Jefferson, Jenkins, Kents, Kidder, Lahr, Morey, Pixley, Taylor, Tucker, Williams, Wilson

Some Locations Mentioned: Buffalo, NY; Cowlesville, NY; Darien, NY; Bridgewater, NY; Brant, NY; Brooklyn, NY; Kirkland, NY; Rochester, NY; Winfield, KA; Augusta, KA; Kenosha, WI; Salem, MA; Sparta, PA; New Orleans, LA; San Francisco, CA; Summit Mines, CO; Dixie, OK territory; Cleveland, OK; Tusla, OK; St. Joseph, MO.

The letters were transcribed and printed generally as written without any correction of spelling or punctuation keeping to original as much as possible, however, some sentence periods and new paragraphs were added when needed for clarity. $30.00

Please add 6% sales tax and $4.00 shipping and handling for each book orders.
